

On the Keller Segel system with external application of Chemoattractant

J. IGNACIO TELLO¹ AND MICHAEL WINKLER²

¹Departamento de Matemática Aplicada, Universidad Politécnica de Madrid

²University of Duisburg-Essen, Germany

¹`jtello@eui.upm.es`, ²`michael.winkler@uni-due.de`

We study the parabolic-elliptic Keller-Segel system, where an external application of chemoattractant is introduced in the system at a distinguished point. We present results concerning the finite time blow up and the global existence of solutions depending on the amount of chemoattractant introduced in the system and the initial mass of the population.