

Fluctuations of random nodal lengths and coupling of Gaussian fields

Giovanni Peccati

I will describe a new approach for obtaining second-order results for the nodal length of Gaussian fields on growing domains, by exploiting coupling techniques and generalized Feynman-Kac formulae. Based on a joint work with G. Dierickx, I. Nourdin and M. Rossi.