

Non-asymptotic results for singular values of Gaussian matrix products

Grigoris Paouris

I will discuss non-asymptotic results for the singular values of products of Gaussian matrices. In particular I will discuss the rate of convergence of the empirical measure to the triangular law and discuss quantitative results on asymptotic normality of Lyapunov exponents. The talk is based on a joint work with Boris Hanin.