

Philosophy 29: Critical Reasoning

Exam, Form: A

Name: _____

Student Number: _____

TA: _____

Date: _____

Section 1. Fill in the blank (5 pts each)

Here is a place where you can put some instructions, so that the students won't get confused when they see a piece of paper with a whole bunch of questions on it. Of course, the instructions aren't required to be that lengthy, but you can make them as lengthy as you want so that people know what you are talking about.

1. _____ thought that without a strong, centralized, effective government, chaos would reign in the state of nature.
2. _____'s first work was the Tractatus-_____ Philosophicus.
3. One main component of Nietzsche's moral philosophy is the _____.
4. How much _____ would a _____ chuck, if a _____ would _____, wood?
5. Mill's theory of morality is known as _____.
6. According to Kant, we should always always always follow the _____ imperative.

Section 2. True/False (5 pts each)

Ho, hum, another batch of instructions. But this time we will make them a little shorter, because we assume that students realize what they should do.

- ___ 'Roger & Me' chronicles one man's attempt to get into Disneyland so that he can visit Toontown.
- ___ All animals are created equal, but some animals are more equal than others.
- ___ This sentence is not false.
- ___ 'Monty Python and the Holy Grail' is a very funny movie.
- ___ Laden swallows fly faster than unladen swallows, unless they carry coconuts.

Section 3.

These are meant to be multiple-choice questions — the type you would give students to fill out using scantrons (or whatever you call the number-2 pencil automatic grading machines).

1. The official state motto of Idaho is?
 - (a) "We're friendly than other states."
 - (b) "Home of the Unabomber."
 - (c) "Famous Potatoes."
 - (d) "Try us, you'll like us."
2. What philosopher declared that human beings are the conduit through which language passes?
 - (a) Martha Stewart
 - (b) Jacques Derrida
 - (c) Jacques Cousteau
 - (d) Martin Heidegger

3. How many cows does it take to graze a field?

- (a) One.
- (b) Two.
- (c) Three.
- (d) Four

4. How many people live in Wales?

- (a) Approximately 2,811,865.
- (b) More than in most countries.
- (c) None.
- (d) Exactly seventeen.

Section 4. Short Answer (10 pts each)

This is an example of the shortanswer type of question, where the questions are rearranged between tests.

1. 'Beware the Jabberwock, my son! The jaws that bite, the claws that catch! Beware the Jubjub bird, and shun the frumious Bandersnatch!'
2. One, two! One, two! And through and through the vorpal blade went snicker-snack! He left it dead, and with its head he went galumphing back.
3. 'Twas brillig, and the slithy toves did gyre and gimble in the wabe; all mimsy were the borogoves, and the mome raths outgrabe.
4. And as in uffish thought he stood, the Jabberwock, with eyes of flame, came whiffling through the tulgey wood, and burbled as it came!
5. He took his vorpal sword in hand: long time the manxome foe he sought – so rested he by the Tumtum tree, and stood awhile in thought.
6. 'And has thou slain the Jabberwock? Come to my arms, my beamish boy! O frabjous day! Callooh! Callay!' He chortled in his joy.
7. 'Twas brillig, and the slithy toves did gyre and gimble in the wabe; All mimsy were the borogoves, and the mome raths outgrabe.

Section 5. Essay Questions (50 pts each)

This is an example of the fixed type of question, where the questions aren't rearranged between tests. Perfect for essay questions, which you normally put at the end and don't need to rearrange.

1. Question 1.
2. Question 2.
3. Question 3.
4. Question 4.
5. Question 5.
